Philharmonic Orchestra Committee Closes Year

Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra brought to a close its tenth year of intensive work dedicated to the financial support of the Philharmonic Orchestra with a musical and luncheon at the Palos Verdes home of Mayor and Mrs. H. F. Roessler.

Mrs. J. Glennon Cahill, Jr. of Palos Verdes is the new president and Mrs. Peter C. Parfitt was introduced as new first vice president and Continuation Fund chairman. Others who will direct the committee's efforts are Mrs. William S. Rule of Portuguese Bend, second vice-president, and Mrs. Joseph L. Siragusa of Palos Verdes third vice-president.

Mrs. Donald L. Weihe of Portuguese Bend is fourth vice-president; Mrs. William Hebenstreit of Palos Verdes will be recording secretary with Mrs. Herbert Jones of Rolling Hills assuming the duties of corresponding secretary. Mrs. George D. Griffith of Portuguese Bend is the new treasurer.

The retiring president, Mrs. H. A. Garbanati of Palos Verdes, remarked that "many things were begun and many things accomplished through this term" before introducing Mrs. George Doran of Rolling Hills, children's theater project chairman, who presented a check of $2,500 to Miss Alice Taylor.

Accepting on behalf of the Philharmonic orchestra, Miss Taylor, who is executive assistant to the Board of Directors of the Southern California Symphony Association said, "this will make a lot of beautiful music". Mrs. Philip Abbott, membership chairman, presented an honorary life membership to Mrs. Roessler before introducing the new members. During the business meeting, members were reminded by Mrs. Cahill that renewals for the Symphony season tickets will close on June 1. Mrs. Rule requested that persons sign up to help with the Invitational Tennis Tournament to be held in the early part of September.

Highlight of the day was the delightful program presented by the Directors, Glenn and Maurice, violinists, accompanied by their mother Irna, concert pianist. Mrs. Edmund J. Rowman of Wilmington, program chairman, arranged for their appearance.

Immediately after the program, members adjourned to the garden terrace for punch served by Mrs. Weihe and J. Weare Pearson II of Rolling Hills.

Mrs. E. H. Raymond of Palos Verdes and Frederick C. Bassick of Palos Verdes poured at the luncheon which was planned by Mmes. Lewis Ewing of Palos Verdes and Andrew D. Shaw of Rolling Hills, hospitality chairmen.

Other assisting were Mmes. Cahill, John T. Howard of Palos Verdes, and George F. Partridge of Rolling Hills.

Society To See Slides On Africa

Nativity Altar Society has an interesting meeting planned for Tuesday evening, June 6. This will be the final meeting until next September and all members are invited to be present.

Sometime ago Shirley Deringer, who spent two years in Africa as a missionary, presented half of her colored slide collection to the Society. At this month's meeting she will show the other half. The pictures are of special interest at the present time with Africa so much in the news. Miss Deringer also narrates, and relates many of her interesting experiences during her stay in Africa.

Serving as hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Harry Kale and the members of the May Guild. This also promises to be something of a little added attraction as each member of the guild will prepare and serve their favorite desert and also bring copies of their favorite recipes to present to members who like to try new dishes on their families.

The main purpose of the Altar Society is the beautification of the Altars of the Nativity Church.

Memorial Rites Held

Mrs. Helen Wildon, District Deputy Grand Royal Matron, eulogized recent departed members of Lomita Court, Order of Amaranth, at the meeting of May 25, which was held in the Torrance Masonic Temple. Virginia Dieble, Associated Grand Lecturer, was a guest.

Attending the altar were the conductresses, Mildred Mittan and Rosalie Reyes. Mona Brizendine led the group in prayer. Albert Bayes, Royal Patron, conducted the memorial services. Soft music was played by Gannett Satterfield while the officers performed ritualistic memorial ceremonies.

Mable Moor, standard bearer, announced donations were being made to the cancer fund, of which she is chairman. Refreshments were served in a beautifully decorated dining room by Helen Wilson and Edna Mullens.

Betty Kendall, royal matron, announced that the next meeting, June 9, would be observed as Father's Day.
